Independent Investment Research Focused on Public Company Interactions with the SEC.

No Recent SEC Investigative Records Found – 118 Companies

As of the date of the response in the table below, we received Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) responses from the SEC to suggest the absence of recent SEC investigative activity. If you think any of these companies have SEC investigations, or had them in the recent past, let us know and we'll file an appeal to challenge the adequacy of the search that led to the responses cited here.

Notes: New SEC investigative activity could theoretically begin or end after the date covered by the latest information in this report, which would not be reflected here. Where applicable, the SEC did not disclose the details on investigations referenced herein. All we know is that they somehow pertain to the conduct, transactions, and/or disclosures of the companies. Companies with undisclosed SEC investigations are maintained on our Watch List of companies with undisclosed SEC investigations. The SEC reminds us that its assertion of the law enforcement exemption should not be construed as an indication by the Commission or its staff that any violations of law have occurred with respect to any person, entity, or security.

Clients are invited to contact us anytime, in total confidence, to discuss how to better assess the companies we identify here.

Probes Reporter® research provides data, commentary, and analysis on public company interactions with investors and with the SEC. Our work is heavily reliant on company disclosures and our expertise in using the Freedom of Information Act.
